

Media Alert

California State Fair Seeks Additional Cultural Advisory Council Members

October 3, 2023 - The California State Fair is accepting applications for the Cultural Advisory Council. The Cultural Advisory Council (CAC) enhances the outreach efforts of the Cal Expo Board of Directors and staff in cultural communities throughout the state. The CAC also advises the Board on matters pertaining to California State Fair multicultural programs related to education, entertainment, and other activities.

Applicants to the CAC should be leaders from diverse cultural communities throughout California and represent a variety of interests and expertise in the areas including, but not limited to: agriculture, arts, community services, education, entertainment, finance, health, government, law enforcement, legal, media, marketing, small business, and youth.

CAC members serve at the pleasure of the Cal Expo Board of Directors. Once selected by the Board, a member will serve one term of two-years. Upon completion of that term, a member will have the opportunity to apply for reappointment by the Board for up to three additional, consecutive terms of two years each. No member shall serve more than 8 years.

Qualified candidates should fill out the application form located online here.

The deadline for submitting an application is Monday, November 6, 2023

For questions, please contact Sue O'Brien at sobrien@calexpo.com.

About the California State Fair

Cal Expo is home of the California State Fair, an international award-winning fair, receiving top honors at the International Association of Fairs and Expositions out of more than 1,100 fairs world-wide. Originally established in 1854, the California State Fair is dedicated as a place to celebrate the best the state has to offer in agriculture, technology, and the diversity of its people, traditions, and trends that shape the Golden State's future.

###